*Home Based Studio applicants will be referred to SoLUXE. SoLUXE has created a way for women to operate their own personalized stationery and gift businesses. Operating independently would mean dedicating several hours a week to account, taxes, inventory, etc... As a member of the SoLUXE team, consultants can focus on selling and marketing their business while a corporate operations team handles the “back end” order processing. Consultants sell direct to end consumers via a website, trunk shows and private appointments. They offer a wide selection of personalized gifts and stationery, Fontaine Maury being a favorite! Many of these brands aren’t traditionally offered to home studios, but have partnered with SoLUXE as their exclusive direct selling partner. SoLUXE sales consultants enjoy the privilege of subsidized samples costs and have access to promotions offered only through their selling channel. – For more information about this exciting opportunity and its compensations, contact SoLUXE Founder Kristen Schadt at 203-202-2801.
