We've done your HOLIDAY SHOPPING for you! Here are the best Southern-made goods for everyone on your list. And don't worry—we've kept your wallet in mind too. BY JENNIFER BERNO

Body Lotion and Sugar Scrub

Emilie Sennebogen named her Atlanta-based line of handmade natural body products after Mother Nature. Her blends are made of pure essential oils. loveyourmama.com; lotion $9 (4 oz.), and scrub $16 (10 oz.)

Chain Navy Bag Tag

These sturdy melamine luggage tags, designed in Thomasville, Georgia, come in 27 patterns and make a bold personal statement for any traveler. fontainemaury.com; $25 (set of 2)

Fabric-Covered Horseshoes

These actual horseshoes, wrapped with printed fabric in Corsicana, Texas, are the most stylish good-luck charms we've come across—hang on the wall or use as paperweights. hableconstruction.com; $18 each

STOCK UP!
For teachers and neighbors

High Cotton Card Game

The Valdosta, Georgia, mother-daughter creators of this so-Southern game say, "You don't have to be wealthy to play, but here's your chance to act like you're 'in high cotton.'" peachandlove.com; $25
